When God Is All You Have Left

Pastor Rory Green

May 29 & June 1, 2025

This is to be a lasting ordinance among the _____¹ for the generations to come.

I am the _____² their God.

Go, sell the _____³ and pay your debts. You and your sons can live on what is left.

When _____⁴ is all you have left, you have more than enough.

No one need be _____⁵, because, if he _____⁶, he can have Jesus for his own property and possession.

1. Israelites 2. Lord 3. Oil 4. God 5. Poor 6. Chooses

1. When have you felt like you had nothing left—and how did God show up for you in that season?
2. What does the oil in this story symbolize, and how does that change your view of what God provides?
3. Why do you think God told the woman to collect jars, not oil?
4. How does the concept of scarcity impact your faith or trust in God's provision?
5. Elisha's instruction to act in faith before seeing a miracle is powerful—how do you relate to that?
6. How does God's presence sustain us, even when it feels like He's silent or distant?
7. How can we better recognize that "God is with us" even when circumstances don't make sense?
8. What "last jar" are you afraid to trust God with—and what might it look like to surrender it?
