

But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being _____¹ into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the _____² of the Lord.

This hope we have as an _____³ of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which enters the Presence behind the veil.

I, the Lord, search the heart, _____⁴, even to five every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings.

Yet in all these things we are more than _____⁵ through Him who loved us.

God is our refuge and strength, A very present _____⁶ in trouble.

1. Transformed 2. Spirit 3. Anchor 4. I test the mind 5. Conquerors 6. Help

1. What does God's question, "Where are you?" reveal about His desire for connection with us?
2. How do we sometimes respond like Adam—hiding from God instead of running to Him?
3. In what ways has fear shaped your view of yourself or your relationship with God?
4. What does it mean to anchor your soul in hope, and how do you practically do that?
5. How has God used seasons of testing in your life to reveal what's in your heart?
6. What voices have influenced your identity, and how can you replace them with God's truth?
7. How do you personally answer the question, "What are you doing here?" in your current season?
8. What helps you stay rooted in truth when life feels overwhelming or uncertain?