

The LORD is my _____<sup>1</sup>; I shall not want.

He makes me lie down in _____<sup>2</sup> pastures. He leads me beside still waters.

He _____<sup>3</sup> my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will _____<sup>4</sup> no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you _____<sup>5</sup> my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and _____<sup>6</sup> shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

1. What does it mean to you personally to call the Lord your Shepherd?
2. In what areas of your life is God leading you to "green pastures" or "still waters" right now?
3. How have you experienced God restoring your soul during a difficult season?
4. What helps you not fear when you're walking through your own valley of shadows?
5. How do you respond to the idea that God prepares a table for you in the presence of your enemies?
6. What significance does the act of anointing have in your spiritual walk today?
7. How do you see goodness and mercy actively pursuing you in your daily life?
8. What does it mean for you to dwell in the house of the Lord forever—now and eternally?
